DATE OF CONTENT_ DATE OBTAINED.  DATE PREPARED 15 July 1953  REMARKS 2  1. There were no demonstrations in Eisenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no ricks, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly BW, had been wisen away by Woels (fmu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    Security measures in connection with martial law. All reads from Eisenach, as well as the entrances of the surrounding villages, were occupied by VF posts. The only sorties seem in Eisenach were at the railread station. Trucks continually patrolled the town. Railroad bridges, as well as entobehin bridges, were occupied by Soviet sentries. Between 21 and 25 June pied by Soviet troops, patrolled the town.  2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg towards and the string of the surrounding villages, were occupied by Soviet sentries. Between 21 and 25 June pied by Soviet troops, patrolled the town. Patrolled the town and trucks of the string of the preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg the patrolled the town and trucks of the patrolled the town and trucks of the patrolled the town and trucks of the patrolled the patrolled the town and trucks of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanteria Kaserne. This intellation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 200 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty, Sentries in the intellation were doubled. Frior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaileds with artillery.	COUNTRY	General Inform	mation on the De	emonstrations		particularly processor and the following size a state of the second	NAMES AND THE OWNERS OF THE OWNERS AND THE OWNERS A
DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTEN	Ol Response		And the state of t
DATE OPENANCE  DATE PREPARED 15 July 1953  This is UNEVALUATED Information 25  [This is UNEVALUATED Information] 25  [This is Unevaluation Informa	TALLIATION.		DLAC	E OPTAINED		And the second s	25X1
DATE PREPARED 15 July 1953  REFERENCES  2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  1. There were no demonstrations in Risemach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a heatile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the Edw plant, formerly BMN, had been given easely by Moels (fmu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    Security measures in connection with martial law. All roads from Estemach, as well as the entrances of the surrounding villages, were cocupied by WF posts. The only sentries seen in Elsemach were at the railroad station. Trucks continually pstrolled the town. Railroad bridges, as well as autobalm bridges, were occupied by Soviet sentries. Detween 21 and 25 June pled by Soviet troops, patrolled the town at trucks, occupied by Soviet troops, patrolled the town and trucks of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanteric Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, as occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Frior to 25 June, the Artilleric Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops warning red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignals.    Description of the property of the activity outside of the installation was doubled. Frior to 25 June, the Artilleric Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops warning red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignals.    Description of the property of the activity outside of the installation was doubled. The property insignals.   Description of the property of the property insignals.   Description of the property of the property insignals.   Description of the pro			LAC	E OBTAINED.			***
This is UNEVALUATED Information  25  26  27  28  28  28  29  20  20  20  20  20  20  20  21  22  25  26  26  26  27  28  28  28  29  20  20  20  20  20  20  20  20  20	•				15 Tuly	1052	Automorphic annuality: *** ***
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. There were no demonstrations in Risenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly EW, had been given away by Weels (fmu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    Security measures in connection with martiel law. All roads from Risenach, as well as the entrances of the surrounding villages, were cooughed by TP posts. The only sentries seen in Risenach were at the railroad station. Trucks continuel ly patrolled the town. Railroad bridges, as well as autobahn bridges, were occupied by Soviet sentries. Between 21 and 25 June pied by Soviet troops, patrolled the town  2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg coupled by Soviet troops, patrolled the town  2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg trucks continuel ly patrolled the town. Railroad bridges, as well as autobahn bridges, were occupied by Soviet troops, patrolled the town  2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg trucks occupied as partolled the town and trucks.  2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg trucks occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epulets with artillery insignial no	DATE OBTAIL	NED		DATE PREPAR	RED	J.7.7.7	The second secon
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. There were no demonstrations in Eisenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the ENW plant, formerly ENW, had been relven away by Woels (fruu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.	REFERENCE				and the second s
This is UNEVALUATED Information  2.2  1. There were no demonstrations in Elsenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly EWB, had been riven away by Weels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervere.	AGES	3 ENCLO	SURES (NO. & TYP	PE)		OF A PARTY OF THE	) OFV4
1. There were no demonstrations in Eisenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly BW, had been wiven away by Woels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.	REMARKS_						25/1
1. There were no demonstrations in Eisenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the EM plant, formerly BNW, had been wiven away by Woels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    riots could still occur.	w.estatestileness.commissions of	Manager grown years a great or of the Armine and Armine and Armine and Armine and Armine and Armine and Armine	ANNESSEE THE SECOND SECTION AND SECTION SECTIONS AND SECTION SECTIONS AND SECTION SECTIONS.		and the second section of the second section of the second section of the second section of the second section		· · · ·
1. There were no demonstrations in Eisenach on 25 June 1953. The population showed a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the EM plant, formerly BNW, had been wiven away by Woels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    riots could still occur.	H. DER JOHN TRACKS AT THE PROPERTY OF THE	.autorassion experience trademic standards experiencement or advanturations.	ink various surfiller successor region authorities de la verifica concentrate Marie	And the second s	•		er general de la companya de la comp
a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no rious, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly EW, had been given away by Woels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.			This is	UNEVALUATED	Information		25X
a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no rious, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly EW, had been given away by Woels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    riots could still occur.     riots could still occur.     security measures in connection with martial law. All roads from Eisenach, as well as the entrances of the surrounding villages, were occupied by VP posts. The only sentries seen in Eisenach were at the railroad station. Trucks continually patrolled the town. Railroad bridges, as well as autobahn bridges, were occupied by Soviet sentries. Between 21 and 25 June pled by Soviet troops, patrolled the town  25. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the railroad station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks    patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Frior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.
a hostile attitude toward the government; however, there were no riots, as the strike workers had planned at the EW plant, formerly EW, had been given away by Woels (fnu), an engineer, who made the police intervene.    riots could still occur.
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the railroad station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days.  After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		security m	easures in conn	ection with mar			.ch.
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual-
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual-
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual-
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual-
2. The demonstrations which preceded the declaration of martial law in Altenburg 25 involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail-road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days. After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual-
involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail- road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days.  After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks  of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, 2 prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.  In training activity outside of the installa-		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual-
involved only small elements, mostly uranium workers. The posts at the rail- road station, the bridges and the bank had been withdrawn after some days.  After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks  of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, 2 prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.  no  raining activity outside of the installa-		as well as th The only sent ly patrolled occupied by S	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries.	the surrounding senach were at oad bridges, as Between 21 and	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn	ds from Eisena ccupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were	posts. ntinual occu-
After 20 June, soldiers wearing red-bordered epaulets patrolled the town and trucks patrolled the vicinity of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, 2 prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.	2.	as well as the The only sent by patrolled occupied by Spied by Sovie	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries. It troops, patro	the surrounding senach were at coad bridges, as Between 21 and alled the town	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad stat well as autobahn 25 June	ds from Eisena coupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were trucks,	posts. ntinual occu-
of Altenburg. These troops came from the Infanterie Kaserne. This installation, 2 prior to 25 June, was occupied as previously by about 500 troops, including about 100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.    No	2.	as well as the The only sent ly patrolled occupied by Spied by Sovie  The demonstration of th	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries. It troops, patro	the surrounding senach were at road bridges, as Between 21 and alled the town	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad state well as autobahn 25 June articles artion of martial moves. The possible villages are the possible to the road articles are	ds from Eisena coupied by VP ion. Trucks co bridges, were trucks,	posts. ntinual occu-
100 troops employed in patrol duty. Sentries in the installation were doubled. Prior to 25 June, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied as previously by a rear detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.    no   training activity outside of the installation were doubled.	2.	as well as the The only sent ly patrolled occupied by Spied by Sovie  The demonstration of the control of the control only sent ly patrolled occupied by Sovie occupied by Sov	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries. It troops, patro ations which property small element, the bridges at	the surrounding senach were at road bridges, as Between 21 and alled the town	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad state well as autobahn 25 June  ration of martial m workers. The pobeen withdrawn af depaulets patrol	law in Altentists at the railed the town seed the town seed the town seed the state of the town seed	posts. ntinual occu-
detail of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.	2.	as well as the The only sent ly patrolled occupied by Spied by Sovie The demonstration of Spied Station, After 20 June trucks of Altenburg.	e entrances of ries seen in Ei the town. Railr oviet sentries. It troops, patro et troops, patro et troops which provides at the bridges at the bridges at the bridges at the bridges at the troops of the troops.	the surrounding senach were at road bridges, as Between 21 and biled the town second the declar of the bank had ring red-border of the Income	tial law. All road villages, were of the railroad state well as autobahn 25 June  ration of martial methods workers. The postern of the patrol of the patrol fanterie Kaserne.	law in Altentists at the railed the town slied the vicinitists.	posts. intinual occu- 25x ourg 25X and inity ation, 25)
	2.	The demonstrative of Altenburg, prior to 25	ations which proyumal elements, the bridges at the	the surrounding senach were at road bridges, as Between 21 and alled the town second the declar of the bank had ring red-borders came from the Inied as previously old duty. Sentrice	ration of martial m workers. The pa been withdrawn af d epaulets patro fanterie Kaserne. y by about 500 tr s in the installa	law in Altentists at the raister some days. Itel the vicinition were doubted.	posts. intinual  occu-  25.  ourg 25X  and inity ation, 25) ing about
Annual and and the former and and the same that the community of the same that the sam	2.	The demonstrative of Altenburg.	ations which programmed at the bridges at troops, patrol at the bridges at the br	the surrounding senach were at road bridges, as Between 21 and alled the town second the town second the town second the bank had ring red-bordere was previously as previously the tasterne was wearing red-bordered.	ration of martial m workers. The potential patrol patrol patrol fanterie Kaserne. y by about 500 tres in the installate occupied as preserved black epaules.	law in Altentists at the railed the viculded the vicinition were doubted with artill	posts. intinual occu- 25X and inity ation, 25) ng about bled. rear lery
CLASSIFICATION SECRET	2.	The demonstrative of Altenburg. prior to 25 detail of abcursent.	ations which provided a soldiers was occupyingloyed in patrolute 200 troops in	the surrounding senach were at road bridges, as Between 21 and alled the town second the town second the bank had ring red-bordere was previously as previou	ration of martial m workers. The potential patro patro fanterie Kaserne. y by about 500 tres in the installas occupied as preserved black epaules ng activity outsi	law in Altentists at the railed the town steed the town with artill de of the installation were doubt to the town steed the to	posts. intinual  occu-  1 25  ourg 25X  and inity ation, 25) and about bled. rear lery talla-

25X1~

25X1 SECRET -2were observed. Sentries at the gates were reinforced since 17 June. There were almost no demonstrations in Weimar. A strike committee had formed in the railroad car plant, and the workers did not work on 17 and 18 June. The 17 members of the committee were arrested and severe punishment was meted against three of them were sentenced to death. Martial some of them. 25X1 law was lifted on 22 June. At 7 a.m. on 18 June, all municipal buildings and the former Saukel Plant were occupied and surrounded by Soviet troops. Five armored personnel carriers. A armored scout cars. 8 AT guns. sedans 25X1 and trucks were identified At 10 a.m. on 20 June, 13 trucks, including 5 towing 37-mm AA guns, were in the yard of the Luetzendorf Kaserne, and 7 trucks and 2 sedans mounting machine guns were seen near the garages. Buildings Nos 6 through 11 were occupied by a hospital. were seen en route to the inand truck Sedans 25X1 stallation. At 10:15 a.m. on 20 June, 6 T-34 tanks, 3 armored personnel carriers, 4 armored scout cars, 8 trucks towing AT guns, and 2 sedans were seen in the yard of the Tannenberg Kaserne. A truck was in front of a vehicle shed and 30 soldiers, who shuttled received instruction, were nearby. Tank trucks 25X1 between the railroad station and the installation, On 20 June, 5 canvas-covered 37-mm AA guns and small groups of soldiers totaling about 80 to 90, were seen in the yard of the Flak Kaserne. Three trucks and 2 sedans mounting machine guns were west of the garages. 25X1 the buildings west 7. of Nohra airfield were occupied by Soviet troops. In May, the buildings had been occupied by a Jugenderziehungsenstalt. Thirteen trucks, including 2 loaded with ammunition, were seen between the buildings. 25X1 Six tents were in the woods south of the airfield. Seventy to 25X1 80 soldiers were lined up between the tents and 2 radio trucks, 5 x 37-mm AA guns and 7 trucks were seen nearby. Sentries patrolled the woods. The four 85-mm AA guns previously observed east of the airfield, were west of the airfield. Ten to 15 soldiers were seen with each gun. They engaged in aiming practice, moving the barrel with their hands. Trucks 25X1 and sedans were seen en route to the Fliegerhorst installation. At about 7:30 a.m. on 19 June, 2 trucks loaded with ammunition and 2 sedans 25X1 occupied by officers passed through the town of Weimar, presumably toward the Tannenberg Kaserne. Except for the soldiers employed in the occupation of the town, there were no indications for an increase of troops stationed in the military installations of the post. 3 25X1 On 17 June. 24 heavy tanks 25X1 10 to 12 trucks, occupied by about 100 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and steel helmets and armed with rifles and submachine guns, were seen en route from Grimma toward Leipzig. Beginning 17 June, heavy traffic, involving armored scout cars, trucks mounting four-barreled machine guns, trucks towing guns, and field kitchens, was obsered on Highway No 176 between Grimma and Leipzig. On 18 June, the Neue Kaserne in Aue was occupied by about 200 troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, 8 trucks, 3 sedans and about 10 dogs. The installation was fully lighted after nightfall. A soldier with a field telephone was at the gate, in addition to the sentry stationed there. Another sentry was seen on the tower. At about 6:55 p.m., five soldiers with submachine guns, and 5 dogs were seen at the guardhouse. At 7:05 p.m., 24 soldiers were seen at the guardhouse. ready to march out. 25X1 occupied by Trucks troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, were seen en route to the installation. 5

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2009/11/18: CIA-RDP80-00810A002100780003-0

SECRET